Local Learning Guide

A simple guide to where to learn in South Derbyshire

Derbyshire Learning Partnership

Learning in South Derbyshire

Do you want to brush up on your maths and English?

Would you like to learn new skills to help you get a job or get on at work?

This Local Learning Guide contains details of organisations in South Derbyshire that can help adults like you to do just that.

It doesn't matter what your background is or your level of education, if you want to get on, you can!

Natalie Wilson, the winner of this year's Derbyshire Learning Partnership Adult

Learner Award said about her learning experience, 'I found a new job and completely changed my life and my overall outlook on life.'

Everyone listed in this Local Learning Guide will welcome your enquiry and will support you through your learning.

We've listed all the organisations in alphabetical order and on the back page you'll find lots of handy contacts that we hope you'll find useful.

Employer Training Pilot Derbyshire skills

If you are a Derbyshire based employer, employing more than one person over 19 years old....lets talk.

Despite the old saying size doesn't matter, it's what your business needs that really count. We all know the value of a good bank manager and accountant. They understand business finance and how to maximise the return for your money. So what if a valu£able skills Broker could improve your profitability by maximising the way your employees work.

That's got to be worth a call.
